footprints

Everyone leaves footprints, some are obvious, some are less apparent. Footprints are left behind with each senior that leaves Mississippi College and left on the hearts of each friendship that is formed. For athletes, there are legends to follow and records to break. For professors, there are students to mentor and academic excellence to achieve. For Christians, there is a calling—a calling to leave behind footprints for others to follow as they press on toward an eternal prize. Paul urged the Corinthians to “follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ” in 1 Corinthians 11:1.

Melinda Laughter & Miranda McInnis
Tribesman Editor & Assistant Editor

Nelson Hall, a longstanding symbol of the college, shines brightly in the night.

Brimming with history, Provine Chapel stands as a spiritual beacon to the students of MC.

As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

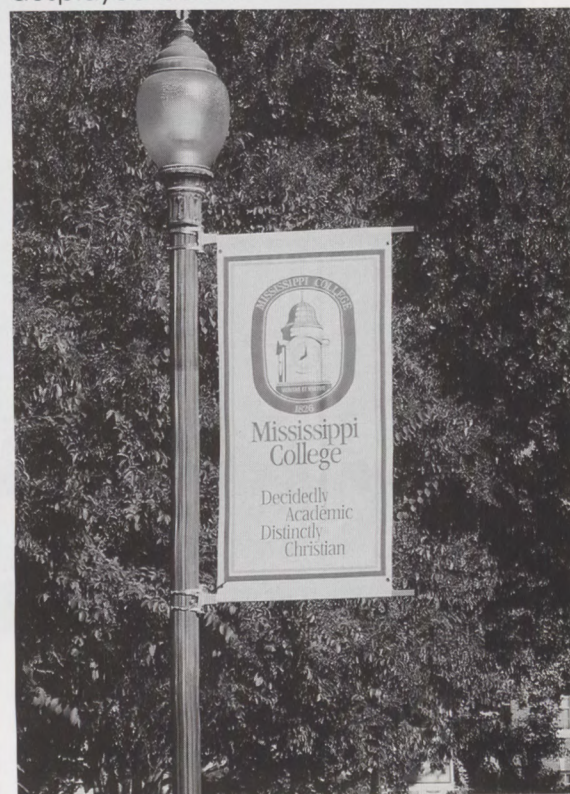

Romans 10:15

To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

1 Peter 2:21

One night a man dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. As scenes of his life flashed before him, he noticed that there were two sets of footprints in the sand. He also noticed at his saddest, lowest times there was but one set of footprints. This bothered the man. He asked the Lord, "Did You not promise that if I gave my heart to You that You'd be with me all the way? Then why is there but one set of footprints during my most troublesome times?" The Lord replied, "My precious child, I love you and would never forsake you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

The recent arrival of Dr. Lee Royce has brought to campus a fresh perspective along with a new motto which is proudly displayed below.

Dedication

Dr. Billy Lytal, a 1961 graduate of MC, is originally from Baldwyn, MS but later moved to West Point. His Masters degree was earned from the University of Mississippi in Communication, and later, his Ph.D. at the University of Southern Mississippi.

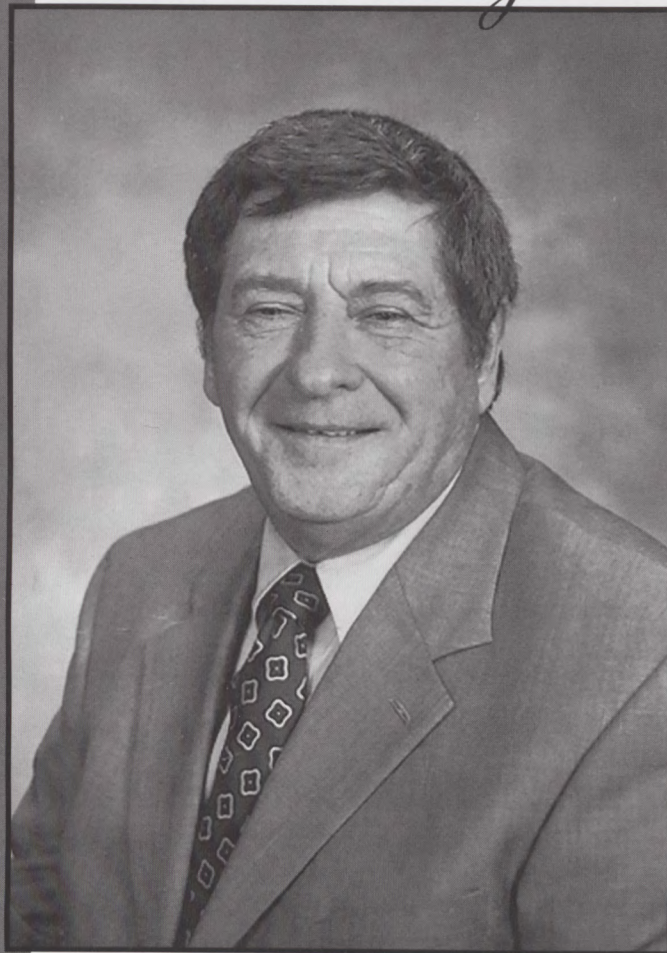

Dr. Lytal has been involved in many facets of education while serving at MC. After officially joining the faculty in 1965, his outstanding leadership soon became evident and he was named Director of the Learning Resources Center in 1981. Two years later, he became the Chair of the Communication Department. He served as London Professor of Residence for the 1994 and 2000 terms, as well as offering his services for multiple Spring Break sessions.

Within the field of communications, Dr. Lytal has proven to be among the finest. He has produced several national television football games, directed numerous plays, and produced multiple commercial spots for the college. Currently, he is serving as faculty advisor to MC's award-winning STAR 93.5 radio station.

Dr. Lytal is married to Linda Eldridge Lytal who works in the Psychology and Counseling department at MC. He is the father of two daughters, Tara Lynn Lytal and Heather Carol Breadwater, and the proud grandfather of Morgan, age 7, and Mitchell, age 5.

With this loyalty and committed devotion to the development of Mississippi College on so many levels, as well as to each student he comes into contact with, the 2003-2004 Mississippi College Tribesman staff in turn dedicates this year's annual to Dr. Lytal and his unending devotion.

Dr. Billy Lytal

In Memory

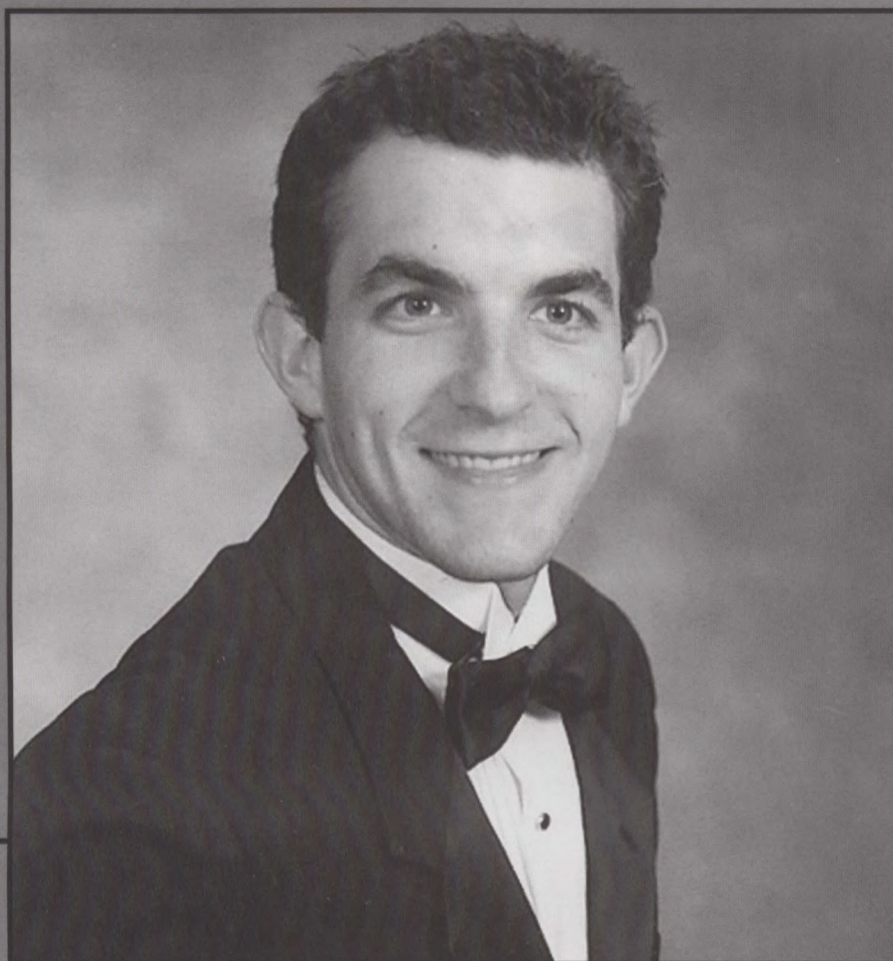

Charlie May

Charles Otis May lived life to the fullest. Anyone who knew Charlie will always remember his carefree attitude and optimistic outlook on every situation. From academics to his golf game, Charlie always had unlimited ability to do anything he wanted. In his few years at Mississippi College, he managed to touch the lives of so many in Shawreth, Rotaract, and elsewhere on campus. Charlie's selfless approach towards others truly exemplified a Christ-like attitude. Charlie May will be missed and loved by so many upon whose lives he made such a lasting impression. Though his life was cut tragically short, we know of the comfort that exists in God's promise of an ultimate joyful reunion in Heaven. "And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him. They shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads. And there shall be no night there: they need no lamp nor light of the sun, for the Lord God gives them light. And they shall reign forever and ever." -Revelation 22:3-5

5. Some girl, Kemily Weimer, and Reed Nunnelee wait patiently outside Alumni for the fire alarm that was set off during an intramural game to be turned off.

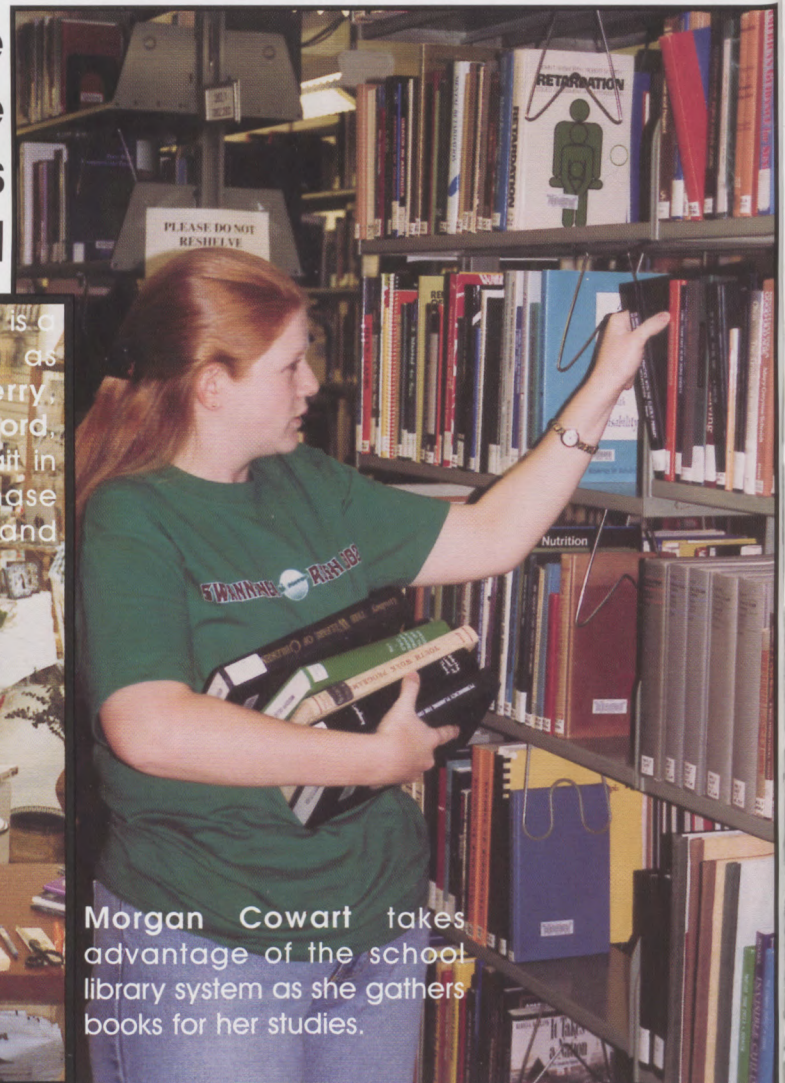

Student Student

Student Life here at Mississippi College involves a wide variety of activities. There are numerous events on campus in which students partake in, whether it be in the dorm room or out on the quad, and also some off campus events when students just need to get away. Whichever they choose, the students of MC make sure that they maintain their social lives.

The book store is a busy place as Allyn Ann Terry, Chad Hannaford, and others wait in line to purchase books and supplies.

I asked my Shawreth rush class to pick my girlfriend up at Nelson and carry her to the bell tower. As they were carrying her, they all sang "You're Just Too Good To Be True." When she got there, I asked her to go to Homecoming with me & she said yes! Chris Teasley, Senior

What is the most creative way you have asked or been asked to Homecoming?

In my Old Testament class, Clay Jones got Dr. Parke to write in his notes on the board during class, "Corrie, will you go to Homecoming with Clay?" Ironically, this was how I planned to ask him to Sadie, but he got asked before I was able. So I told him my idea, & he stole it. Corrie Cutrer, Senior

I took all the floss off a roll & cut pieces of paper so thin that they fit through the hole of the case. Then I rolled the paper back around inside. Faculty

Through all the turmoil of college life, the group that keeps students on the right track is the faculty. These tireless people are always working hard at preparing students to face the real world and the struggles in it. Without all their help and effort, MC students would soon be lost. Students can take comfort in the fact that teachers are always willing to help them in their search for truth and understanding.

While teaching an organic chemistry class Dr. Ed Valente writes a formula for a compound to illustrate his point.

Fine Fine

God has imparted in all of us special gifts and talents. God has also given us the task of using our talents responsibly. Mississippi College has a place for each and every student to express that gift or talent in a way that glorifies God.

Organiz Organiz

Here at Mississippi College, finding a way to fill up time is not a problem. Whether the interest is in ministry, academics, art, or social life there is an organization to meet those needs! The challenge at MC is not to find an organization to get involved in, but finding a way to balance them all. Whatever organization you choose, fun is sure to be involved.

Baseball

Head coach Lee Kuyrkendall talks to the umpire about a play that was just called. Coaches always make sure that plays are called fairly.

After winning last seasons conference championship, the MC Choctaw baseball team ran out onto the field in ecstatic celebration.

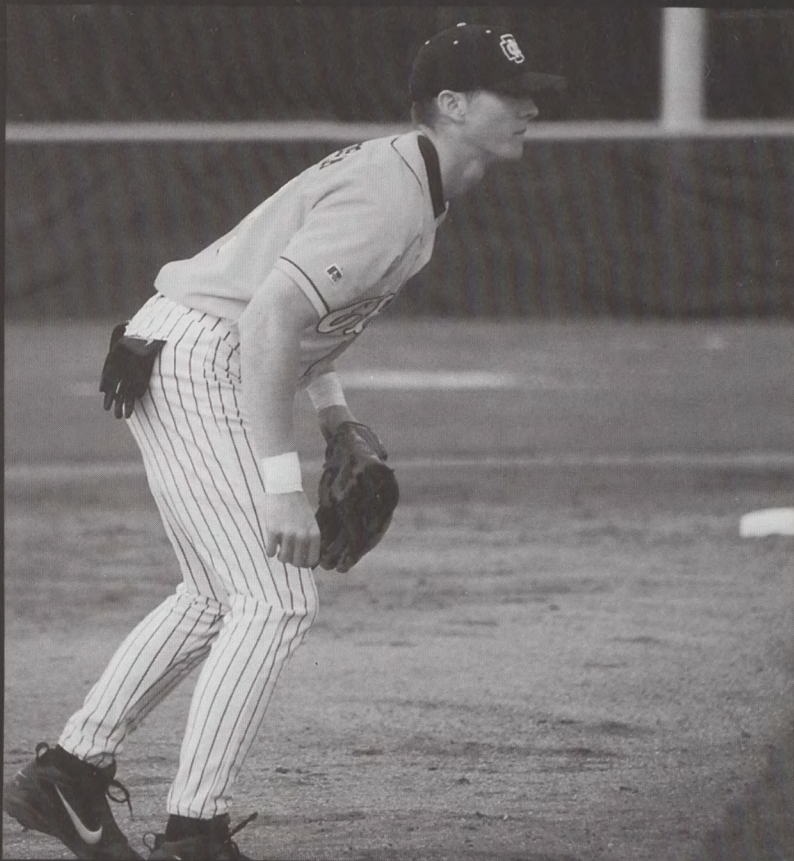

As soon as time ran out, players and fans poured onto the field to congratulate the team on another well deserved win.

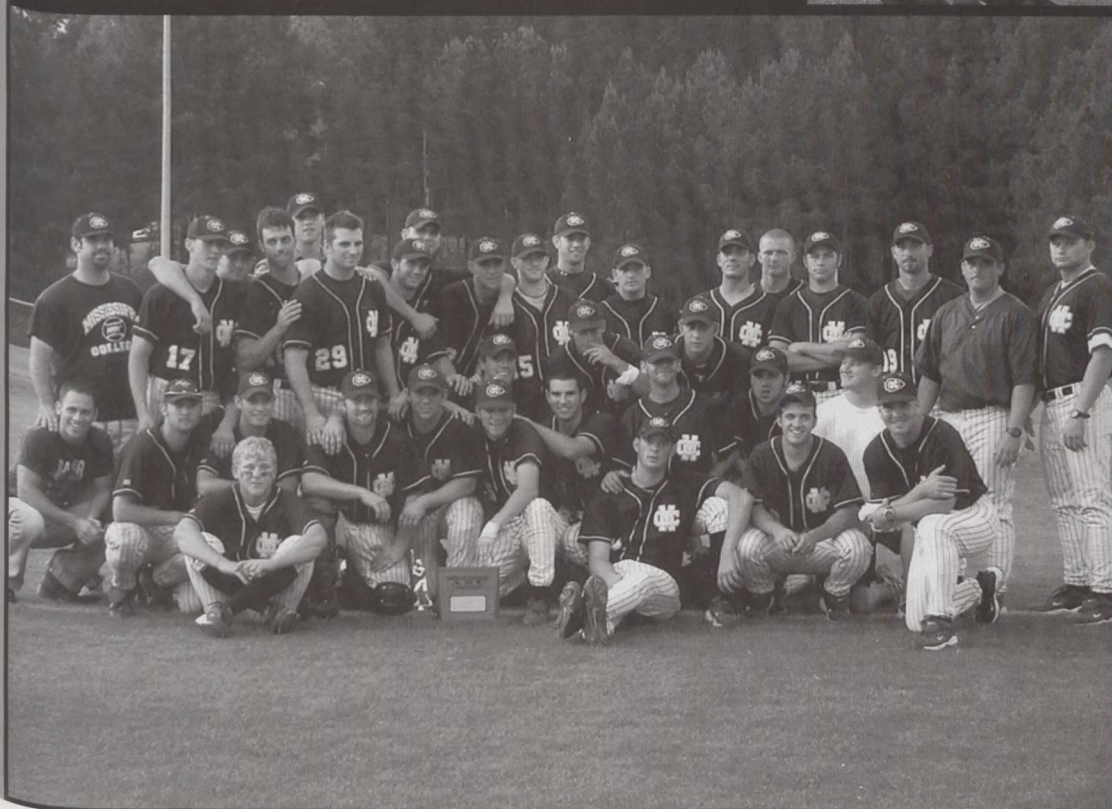

Left: As a Choctaw player gets in position to hit the oncoming baseball, he focuses his attention on where the pitcher is throwing the ball.

Below: Matt Clinger watches the batter to see where the ball was going. It is very important be aware of where the ball is at all times.

As an MC Choc stands on third base, the third baseman signals to the catcher that he needs to be ready with the ball to tag the runner.

Alumni Pool

The women's soccer team acquires aquatic benefits to excel on the field. They are led by Pamela L. Smith.

The track team uses aquatic workout to increase speed and action of fast twitch fibers.

Water Aerobics class experiences Aqua Power Step which offers multi-directional resistance benefits.

P.E. students enjoying the water...fun and fellowship.

Intramurals

Katie Holden's team "Leet Skillz" line up against the "Husslers" to hike the ball in women's flag football.

Lauren Johnson from the "Leet Skillz" team intercepted the ball and is running down the field for a touchdown.

Right: Clint Hatch and Justin Williams get ready to jump for the jump ball. Whoever can get a hand on the ball hits it to their teammates and their team becomes the offense.

Far Right: Daniel Howard gets in position to shoot a free throw shot. If a player is fouled in the act of shooting, he or she will be awarded 2 free throws.

The five kilometer intramural runners begin the race off together at the starting line.

The runners try to keep their pace consistent until the end so they are not as tired and can make a last minute effort when the finish line is in site.

Continuing to press on through the rain, Sarah Beth Watkins struggled with overcoming fatigue and wet terrain.

Both girls and guys ran together in this race. There were not different girls and guys teams for this intramural event.

Two beach volleyball teams battle it out on the sand volleyball courts outside of New Men's dorm.

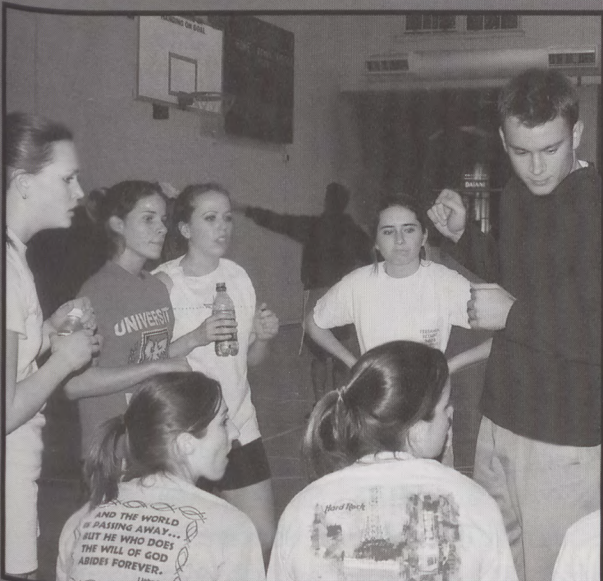

One team prepares to hit the volleyball back over the net hard and fast enough so the other team is not able to return it. Meanwhile, their opponents are preparing to block so the ball does not make it over.

Intramural beach volleyball was played over the summer. This player is serving the ball to the other team.

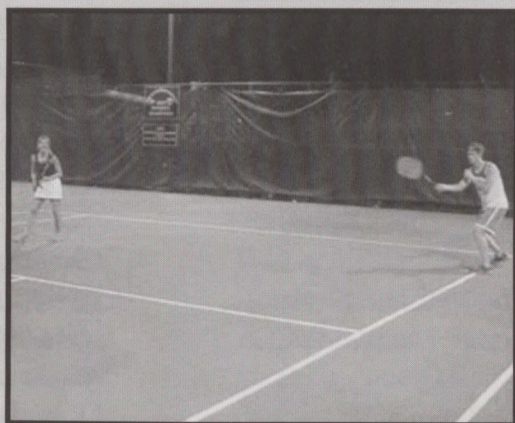

Catching some major air on a return hit over the net, one team successfully makes a point.

Far Left: Tadd Walker, coach of team "The Best," gives his girls a pep talk while they take a time out. The coach's job was to tell their team what they need to work on and how their performance was.

Left: Autumn Skellenger pushes her way through the defense for a better shot at the basket. Offensive players had to fight off the defensive players using nothing but their own movement to get an open shot.

In sheer joy, two teammates celebrate their win with hugging, a couple of screams and a little dancing.

On parallel sides of the court, teammates prepare to take on their opponents by working together and covering their specific portion of the court.

Preparing to serve the ball back to the other side, Bethany Daniel gets into position and watches the ball intently to know where it is going.

The walls of the Mad Hatter are decorated with the artwork of local artists. It is a quaint cafe where people can get a good cup of coffee and relax.

*y*ou cannot help but learn more as you take the world into your hands.
Take it up reverently, for it is an old piece of clay, with millions of thumbprints on it.

Jonathan Campbell

Thank you for coming to our rescue in the middle of the year, and we really appreciate everything that you did for us. Your hard work and productivity allowed us to complete this book. Also, thank you to everyone else who did their work and encouraged us along the way. We would like to add that Dr. Tim Nicholas is the best advisor ever. Thank you for your moral support and prayers.

A Note from the Editors

We would like to thank everyone whose hard work and dedication made this an extraordinary book. We would also like to thank Dr. Tim Nicholas for all his support and encouragement along the way and Mrs. Vicki Williams for all the behind the scenes paper work that had to be done. Most of all we would like to thank you, the students, for allowing us to document your years as a Mississippi College student. Without you, this book would not have been possible. We wish you many years of success and prosperity, but most of all, we pray that you will remember to follow in Christ's footsteps.
